1 AUGUST – 3 AUGUST 2023

PARTNERS' PROGRAMME

Antigua is a small city surrounded by volcanoes in the south of Guatemala. It is famous for its Spanish colonial buildings, many of them restored after the 1773 earthquake that ended Antigua's 200-year rule as Guatemala's colonial capital. The main tourist attractions of Antigua are the Palace of the General Captains, the Convent and Arch of Santa Catalina, the Plaza Mayor, the Jade Museum, the Old Guatemala Cathedral, the Museum of the University of San Carlos, the Holy Route Hermano Pedro, Las Capuchinas Convent, Ruins of the Church of Nuestra Señora del Carmen, the Central Park (Plaza Mayor), among others. The city is also rich in handicrafts such as typical fabrics, ceramics, silver and gold products, candles, metal products, typical sweets, and gastronomy.
